The defendant shall participate in sex offender treatment under the guidance and supervision of the probation officer and abide by the rules, requirements, and conditions of the treatment program, including submitting to polygraph testing to aid in the treatment and supervision process. He must pay for the cost of that treatment, including polygraph sessions, at the rate of $10 per session with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. If he is financially unable to pay, the cost of treatment will be waived.

To ensure compliance with the internet capable device monitoring condition, the defendant must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any internet capable devices subject to monitoring. These searches will be conducted to determine whether the internet capable device contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. He must warn any other people who use these internet capable devices that the devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant will not participate in online gaming. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. He must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
